(g) if the vehicle is waiting owing to the driver being prevented from proceeding by circumstances beyond his control, or the driver has been told to wait by a police constable in uniform, or such waiting is necessary in order to avoid an accident.

5. SAVE as provided in Article 6 of this Order no person except under the direction or with the permission of a person authorised by the Council shall cause or permit any vehicle to wait in any the length of road specified in Schedule 4 of this Order during the times specified therein other than:

(a) for the purpose of delivering or loading or unloading goods to adjacent premises.

(b) to allow a passenger or passengers to board or alight from the vehicle or load thereon or unload therefrom his or their personal luggage.

6. NOTHING in Article 5 of this Order shall render in unlawful to cause or permit a vehicle to wait in any of the lengths of road specified therein if:-

(a) the waiting is only for so long as may be reasonably necessary to enable a person to board or alight from the vehicle or load thereon or unload therefrom their personal luggage;

(b) the vehicle is being used for emergency Fire and Rescue Service, Ambulance or Police purposes;

(c) the vehicle, not being a passenger carrying vehicle, is being used in the service of a local authority in pursuance of statutory powers or duties provided that it is reasonably necessary in the exercise of such powers or in the performance of such duties for the vehicle to wait in the place in which it is waiting;

(d) to enable the vehicle, if it cannot conveniently be used for such purpose in any other road, to be used in connection with any building or demolition operations, the removal of any obstruction to traffic, the maintenance, improvement or reconstruction of any of the lengths of road so referred to or the laying, erection or alteration or repair in or near to any of the said lengths of roads or any sewer or of any main, pipe or apparatus for the supply of gas, water or electricity or of any telegraph apparatus as defined in paragraph 1(1) of the Telecommunications Code contained in the Second Schedule to the Telecommunications Act 1984;

(e) the vehicle is bearing a livery which is used by a Universal Service Provider and the vehicle is engaged in the collection and/or delivery of letters in accordance with statutory duty for the provision of services for the conveyance of letters;

(f) if the vehicle is waiting only for so long as may be reasonably necessary while a gate or barrier is opened or closed to allow access or departure to or from adjacent premises;

(g) if the vehicle is waiting owing to the driver being prevented from proceeding by circumstances beyond his control, or the driver has been told to wait by a police constable in uniform, or such waiting is necessary in order to avoid an accident;

7. SAVE as provided in Article 8 of this Order no person except under the direction or with the permission of a person authorised by the Council shall cause or permit any vehicle to load or unload at any time in any of the lengths of road specified in Schedule 5 of this Order.

8. NOTHING in Article 7 of this Order shall render it unlawful for a person to load and unload at any time in the lengths of road specified therein in:-

(a) the vehicle is being used for emergency Fire and Rescue Service, Ambulance or Police purposes;

(b) the vehicle, not being a passenger carrying vehicle, is being used in the service of a local authority in pursuance of statutory powers or duties provided that it is reasonably necessary in the exercise of such powers or in the performance of such duties for the vehicle to wait in the place in which it is waiting;

(c) to enable the vehicle, if it cannot conveniently be used for such purpose in any other road, to be used in connection with any building or demolition operations, the removal of any obstruction to traffic, the maintenance, improvement or reconstruction of any of the lengths of road so referred to or the laying, erection or alteration or repair in or near to any of the said lengths of roads or any sewer or of any main, pipe or apparatus for the supply of gas, water or electricity or of any telegraph apparatus as defined in paragraph 1(1) of the Telecommunications Code contained in the Second Schedule to the Telecommunications Act 1984;

(d) the vehicle is bearing a livery which is used by a Universal Service Provider and the vehicle is engaged in the collection and/or delivery of letters in accordance with statutory duty for the provision of services for the conveyance of letters;

(e) if the vehicle is waiting only for so long as may be reasonably necessary while a gate or barrier is opened or closed to allow access or departure to or from adjacent premises;

(f) if the vehicle is waiting owing to the driver being prevented from proceeding by circumstances beyond his control, or the driver has been told to wait by a police constable in uniform, or such waiting is necessary in order to avoid an accident;

9. (a) SAVE as provided in Article 10 or Article 9(b) of this Order no person except under the direction or with the permission of a person authorised by the Council shall cause or permit any vehicle to wait in any of the lengths of road specified in Schedule 6 of this Order on the days and during the times specified therein.

9. (b) NOTWITHSTANDING the provisions contained in Article 9(a) or Article 10 of this Order, nothing therein shall prevent a vehicle from waiting for a maximum period of 60 minutes in the length of road referred to in Schedule 6 of this Order between the hours and on the days specified therein provided that a period of at least 2 hours has elapsed since the termination of a previous period of waiting by the same coach in the same length of road.

10. NOTHING in Article 9 of this Order shall render it unlawful to cause or permit a vehicle to wait in any of the lengths of road specified therein if:-

- (a) the waiting is only for so long as may be reasonably necessary to enable a person to board or alight from the vehicle or load thereon or unload therefrom their personal luggage;
- (b) the vehicle is being used for emergency Fire and Rescue Service, Ambulance or Police purposes;
- (c) the vehicle, not being a passenger carrying vehicle, is being used in the service of a local authority in pursuance of statutory powers or duties provided that it is reasonably necessary in the exercise of such powers or in the performance of such duties for the vehicle to wait in the place in which it is waiting;
- (d) to enable the vehicle, if it cannot conveniently be used for such purpose in any other road, to be used in connection with any building or demolition operations, the removal of any obstruction to traffic, the maintenance, improvement or reconstruction of any of the lengths of road so referred to or the laying, erection or alteration or repair in or near to any of the said lengths of roads or any sewer or of any main, pipe or apparatus for the supply of gas, water or electricity or of any telegraph apparatus as defined in paragraph 1(1) of the Telecommunications Code contained in the Second Schedule to the Telecommunications Act 1984;
- (e) the vehicle is bearing a livery which is used by a Universal Service Provider and the vehicle is engaged in the collection and/or delivery of letters in accordance with statutory duty for the provision of services for the conveyance of letters;
- (f) if the vehicle is waiting only for so long as may be reasonably necessary while a gate or barrier is opened or closed to allow access or departure to or from adjacent premises;
- (g) if the vehicle is waiting owing to the driver being prevented from proceeding by circumstances beyond his control, or the driver has been told to wait by a police constable in uniform, or such waiting is necessary in order to avoid an accident;

11. (a) THE provisions contained in Schedule 7 of this Order are hereby revoked so far only as the restrictions on the lengths of road specified therein are concerned.

11. (b) SAVE as provided in Article 11(a) the Orders referred to therein shall remain in full force and effect.

12. IF a vehicle is left or abandoned in a length of road or in any other location whatsoever to which any provision of this Order applies in contravention of any of the provisions of this Order a Civil Enforcement Officer may issue a penalty charge notice and/or the vehicle may be removed from that location.

13. NOTWITHSTANDING any of the foregoing provisions of this Order a Civil Enforcement Officer on behalf of the Council may at their discretion (including requiring an administration fee) issue a dispensation allowing a specific vehicle to wait in a length of road or any other location whatsoever to which any provision of this Order applies during the hours of operation of any restriction or prohibition to the contrary.

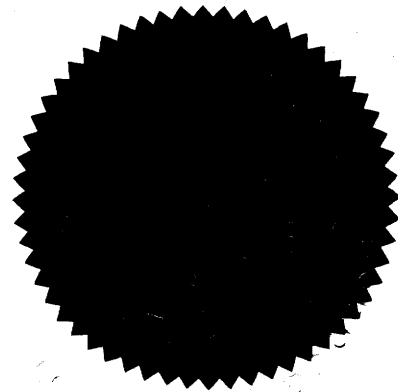

14. THIS Order shall come into operation on the nineteenth day of September 2011 and may be cited as "THE BOROUGH OF BLACKPOOL (WHITEGATE DRIVE) (VARIOUS RESTRICTIONS) AND (REVOCATIONS) ORDER 2011"
