

THE CITY OF NORWICH

(ON STREET CHARGES) TRAFFIC REGULATION ORDER 2001

The Council of the City of Norwich (hereinafter referred to as "the Council") in the exercise of their powers under Sections 1, 2, 4, 45 and 46 of the Road Traffic Regulation Act, 1984 (which Act is hereinafter referred to as the 1984 Act) and of all other enabling powers and with the consent of the Norfolk County Council, and after consultation with the Chief Officer of Police in accordance with the 1984 Act hereby make the following Order:-

Commencement and Citation

1. This Order shall come into operation on the 14 day of August, 2001, and shall be cited as "Norwich City Council (On Street Charges) Traffic Regulation Order 2001."

2.(1) In this Order, the following expressions have the meanings assigned to them:-

"limited waiting place" means a parking place where vehicles are permitted to wait for a limited period of time.

"parking permit" means a parking permit issued under the provisions of Article 36 of this Order;

"driver" in relation to a vehicle waiting in a parking place means:

- (1) the person driving the vehicle at the time it was left in the parking space;
- (2) the person deemed to be the driver under the terms of Article 23(1) of this Order.

"excess charge" means the charge referred to in Article 17 of this Order;

"initial charge" means the charge referred to in Article 10 of this Order;

"parking place" means any area of public highway specified as a designated parking place by name in the column of the schedules to this Order headed "Designated Parking Place";

"registered keeper" means the person whose name and address are registered by the Driver Vehicle Licensing Authority or any substitute body as being the keeper of a vehicle;

"display" means display in accordance with Article 16 of this Order;

“parking ticket” means a parking ticket issued by a ticket machine operated by the Council or their contractor;

“ticket machine” means an apparatus designed to issue parking tickets indicating the payment of a charge and the date and time at which the charge was paid;

“waiting” in relation to a vehicle means that the vehicle is not moving;

- 2.(2) The Interpretation Act 1978 shall apply for the interpretation of this Order as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.
3. Each length of public highway mentioned under the heading “designated parking place” in a schedule to this Order may be used, subject to the following provisions of this Order, as a parking place for vehicles on such days and times as specified in the said schedules as “short stay parking places” and on payment of such charges as are specified as a tariff in relation to that area in the said schedules
4. The driver of a vehicle shall not allow that vehicle to wait in a parking place unless that vehicle displays a valid parking ticket or is of a class that can wait free of charge in the parking place as specified below:
  - (a) the vehicle is waiting only for so long is necessary to enable a person to board or alight from the vehicle;
  - (b) the vehicle is waiting owing to the driver being prevented from proceeding by circumstances beyond his control or such waiting being necessary in order to avoid accidents;
  - (c) the vehicle is a vehicle used for Fire Brigade, Ambulance or Police purposes being suitably identified as such and being used in pursuance of statutory powers or duties;
  - (d) the vehicle is waiting only for so long as may be necessary to enable the vehicle to be used in connection with the removal of any obstruction to traffic;
  - (e) the vehicle is waiting in connection with the collection or delivery of postal packets in respect of premises adjacent to the parking place in which the vehicle is waiting;
  - (f) a vehicle being a private car is waiting for a maximum of 5 minutes for the loading or unloading of goods, or being a commercial vehicle is waiting for a maximum of 20 minutes for the loading or unloading of goods, in both cases provided that no ban on loading or unloading goods is in force in respect of the parking place;

- (g) the vehicle not being a passenger vehicle is in actual use in connection with the removal of furniture from one office or dwelling house to another or the removal of furniture from such premises to a depository or to such premises from a depository.
  - (h) a vehicle being used for the purpose of any building operation, demolition or excavation in or adjacent to the parking place or the maintenance, improvement or reconstruction of the parking place or the laying, erection, alteration, removal or repair in or adjacent to the parking place of any sewer or any main, pipe or apparatus for the supply of gas, water or electricity or telecommunications or any telegraphic line, traffic sign or ticket machine.
  - (i) a disabled persons vehicle displaying a valid disabled persons badge being either a disabled persons badge under the definition contained in the Disabled Persons (Badges for Motor Vehicles) (England) Regulations 2000 or a badge is issued under the "Green Badge" Scheme run by the Council together with a display showing the commencement of the period of waiting.
  - (j) a vehicle displaying a valid parking permit issued by the Council allowing that vehicle to wait in the limited waiting place subject to article 13 ;
  - (k) a vehicle waiting with the permission of a Police Constable, or Parking Attendant employed by the Council;
  - (l) a vehicle delivering a child to school or waiting to collect a child from school providing the vehicle waits for no longer than 10 minutes;
  - (m) a vehicle delivering a person to a social services facility run by the Norfolk County Council or collecting a person from the same provided the vehicle waits for no longer than 10 minutes.
5. The driver of a vehicle shall not allow their vehicle to wait in a parking place for longer than a continuous period of two hours after an excess charge notice has been issued in respect of that vehicle.
  6. The driver of a vehicle shall not allow that vehicle to wait in a parking place if that vehicle displays a time expired parking ticket or an invalid parking permit.
  7. Subject to a parking place having parking space markings, the driver of a vehicle shall not allow that vehicle to wait within a parking place other than completely within the markings of a single parking space.
  8. The driver of a vehicle shall not allow that vehicle to wait in a parking place if that vehicle displays a parking ticket which was purchased (whether by the driver or another person) for a different vehicle or at a different parking place than the parking place where the vehicle is waiting.

9. The driver of a motor vehicle shall not return after parking in a limited waiting place to that same limited waiting place within the period (if any) stated in the schedule to this Order as being a period during which return is prohibited.
10. The driver of a vehicle which may not wait free of charge as specified in article 4 of this Order waiting in a parking place shall pay a charge (called "the initial charge") for the vehicle in respect of the period for which the driver leaves the vehicle in that parking place in accordance with the scale of charges specified in respect of that parking place in the schedules to this Order.
11. Not used.
12. A disabled persons badge shall not be considered valid for the purposes of this Order if defaced or obstructed so that it cannot be read from outside the vehicle, or if it has expired by passage of time.
13. A parking permit shall not be considered valid for the purposes of this Order if defaced or obstructed so that it cannot be read from outside the vehicle, or if the parking permit has expired by effluxion of time or been declared invalid by the Council.
14. The initial charge shall be payable by the insertion of the appropriate banknotes, coins or electronic card into an apparatus or device provided being an apparatus or device known as a ticket machine.
15. The issue of a ticket by a ticket machine provided in a parking place shall (without any statement to that effect upon the ticket) indicate the payment of the initial charge in accordance with the scale of charges appropriate to such a parking place as specified in the schedule to this Order provided that the ticket is displayed in accordance with Article 16.
16. The driver of a vehicle waiting in a parking place shall display a parking ticket, or a parking permit within the vehicle by placing it on the dashboard or the rear parcel shelf of the vehicle, in all cases so that the time and all other particulars shown are clearly visible from outside the vehicle during the entire time period the vehicle is waiting in the parking place.
17. If the driver of a vehicle breaches any of the Articles of this Order then the initial charge together with an additional amount of £45.00 (which additional amount is referred to as an "excess charge") shall be payable by the driver of the vehicle; in the event of payment being received by the Council within 14 days of the day on which the excess charge was incurred the amount of the excess charge shall be discounted to £30.00;

18. In the case of a vehicle in respect of which an excess charge has been incurred, it shall be the duty of a Council officer or contractor to attach to the vehicle in a conspicuous position on the driver's side window or on the windscreen or to hand to the driver a notice called an excess charge notice which may include the colour of the vehicle and which shall include the following particulars:-
- (a) the registration mark of the vehicle or, where the vehicle is being used under a trade licence, the number of the trade plate carried on the vehicle;
  - (b) the day time and place at which the patrolling officer first noticed the failure to observe any of the requirements of this Order together with details of the failure;
  - (c) a statement that an excess charge of £45.00 is required to be paid;
  - (d) the manner in which, and the time within which, the excess charge should be paid;
  - (e) a statement that a discounted excess charge of £30.00 is payable if payment is made within 14 days of the date of which the excess charge is incurred;
  - (f) a statement that it is an offence for the driver of a vehicle who has incurred an excess charge to fail to pay that excess charge.
19. Any person duly authorised by the Council may suspend the use of a parking place or any part thereof whenever that person feels it is reasonably necessary:-
- (a) for the purpose of facilitating the movement of traffic or promoting its safety;
  - (b) for the purpose of any building operation, demolition or excavation in or adjacent to the parking place or the maintenance or improvement of the parking place or the laying, erection, alteration, removal or repair of any sewer or any services for the supply of gas, water, electricity or telecommunications.
20. No person shall cause or permit a vehicle to wait in a parking place whose use has been suspended. Where an excess charge notice has been attached to a vehicle in accordance with the provisions of Article 18 of this Order no person other than the driver of the vehicle or a duly authorised representative of the Council shall remove the notice from the vehicle.
21. Where a parking ticket has been placed on the dashboard or rear parcel shelf of a vehicle in accordance with the provisions of this Order no person not being the driver of the vehicle shall remove the parking ticket from such location unless authorised to do so by the driver.
22. The driver of a vehicle in respect of which an excess charge has been incurred shall pay the excess charge to the Council or its contractor if any in the manner required by the Excess Charge Notice within twenty-one days of the date it was incurred:

23. Pursuant to powers given under Section 46 of the 1984 Act the following shall apply:
- (1) if on the date a vehicle is left in a parking place a person is shown to have been the registered keeper of that vehicle by information in writing received from the Driver Vehicle Licensing Authority or any successor organisation then for the purposes of this Order they shall be deemed to have been the driver of the vehicle on that date unless the contrary is shown;
  - (2) the date and time printed on any ticket from a ticket machine at a parking place shall be good evidence in any legal proceedings in relation to this Order that the ticket was purchased on that date and expired at that time;
  - (3) where in any legal proceedings in relation to the failure to pay any initial charge or excess charge under this Order, it is proved to the satisfaction of any court that the amount which has become due or part thereof has not been paid, the court shall order the payment of the sum not paid which shall then become recoverable as a penalty;
  - (4) in any legal proceedings in relation to this Order it shall be assumed unless the contrary is shown that any ticket machine at a parking place is of an industry standard type and design
24. The driver of a vehicle shall not allow that vehicle to wait in a parking place for longer than the maximum period of waiting in respect of that parking place specified in the schedules to this Order.
25. The driver of a vehicle shall not allow their vehicle to wait in any parking place in a position which restricts or prohibits other motorists movements except in so far as the vehicle is waiting fully within the markings of a parking place.
26. The driver of a vehicle using a parking place shall stop the engine as soon as the vehicle is in position in the parking place, and shall not start the engine except when about to change the position of the vehicle in or to depart from the parking place.
27. No person shall use a vehicle, while it is in a parking place, in connection with the sale of any article to persons in or near the parking place other than with the authority of the Council.
28. No person shall use a vehicle, while it is in a parking place in connection with the selling or offering for hire of their skill or services other than with the authority of the Council.

29. Subject to the proviso hereto, when a vehicle is left in a parking place in contravention of any of the provisions of this Order, a person authorised in that behalf by the Council may remove the vehicle or arrange for it to be removed from that parking place: Provided that when a vehicle is waiting in a parking place in contravention of the provision of Article 25 of this Order then a person authorised in that behalf by the Council may alter or cause to be altered the position of the vehicle in order that its position shall comply with that provision.
30. Not used.
31. No person shall use any part of a parking place or any vehicle left in a parking place:-
- (1) for sleeping or camping purposes;
  - (2) for eating or cooking purposes; or
  - (3) for the purpose of servicing or washing any vehicle or part thereof other than is reasonably necessary to enable that vehicle to depart from the parking place.
32. Every vehicle left in a parking place in accordance with this Order shall so stand.
- (a) if the parking place is not in a one-way street, that the left or near side of the vehicle is adjacent to the left hand edge of the carriageway;
  - (b) if the parking place is in a one-way street, that the left or near side of the vehicle is adjacent to the left hand edge of the carriageway or that the right or off side of the vehicle is adjacent to the right hand edge of the carriageway, and;
  - (c) that the distance between the edge of the carriageway and the nearest wheel of the vehicle is not more than 12 inches or its metric equivalent.
33. In a parking place no person shall place, erect or cause or permit to be erected any skip, tent, booth, stand, building or other structure or store any materials without the written consent of the Council.
34. Any person removing or altering the position of a vehicle by virtue of Article 29 of this Order may do so by towing or driving the vehicle or in such other manner as they may think necessary and may take such measures in relation to the vehicle as they may think necessary to enable them to remove the vehicle or alter the vehicle's position, as the case may be.
35. A person authorised by the Council may remove a vehicle from a parking place. They shall in such cases make such arrangements as may be reasonably necessary for the safe custody of the vehicle.

36. The Council may issue parking permits to allow the permit holder to park a vehicle in a parking place, at such charge and payable in such a manner as specified by the Council.
37. If a parking permit is restricted in use to certain parking places or otherwise conditioned the permit shall be used only in accordance with such restriction or conditions.
38. Amendments
